THE STAMP DUTY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2026

An Act to amend the Stamp Duty Act, Cap. 339 to require persons carrying on the business of financial services to file monthly returns; to require taxpayers to retain documents subject to stamp duty for a period of at least five years; and to amend Schedule 2 to the Act to revise the stamp duty payable on transfers and motor vehicle registration.

DATE OF ASSENT:

Date of Commencement:

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. Commencement

This Act shall come into force on 1st July, 2026.

2. Amendment of Stamp Duty Act

The Stamp Duty Act, in this Act referred to as the principal Act, is amended by inserting immediately after section 7, the following—

“7A. Persons carrying on business of financial services to file monthly returns

(1) A person carrying on the business of financial services shall file monthly returns with the Commissioner General, of all sums received in respect of stamp duty paid on the instruments.

(2) On the basis of the monthly returns filed under subsection (1), the Commissioner General shall ascertain that the person has paid the stamp duty.

(3) Where the person who carries on the business of financial services fails to file the returns under this section, the person shall pay simple interest of two percent of the duty payable for every month during which the failure continues.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “financial services” means—

- (a) granting, negotiating and dealing with loans, credit, credit guarantees and any security for money, including management of loans, credit or credit guarantees by the grantor;
- (b) transactions concerning deposit and current accounts, payments, transfers, debts, cheques and negotiable instruments, other than debt collection and factoring;
- (c) transactions relating to shares, stocks, bonds and other securities, other than custody services;
- (d) management of investment funds, but does not include provision of credit facilities under a hire-purchase or finance lease agreement; and
- (e) transactions of money lenders under the Tier 4 Microfinance Institutions and Money Lenders Act.

3. Amendment of section 62 of principal Act

Section 62 of the principal Act is amended—

- (a) by renumbering section 62 as subsection (1);
- (b) by inserting immediately after subsection (1), the following—

“(2) A person required to maintain a document or record referred to under subsection (1), shall retain the document or record for a period of at least five years from the date the document or record was generated.”

4. Amendment of Schedule 2 to principal Act

The principal Act is amended in Schedule 2, by inserting immediately after item 66, the following—

“67. Registration or transfer of—
(a) motorcycle, tricycle or quadricycle	30,000/=
(b) any other motor vehicle	200,000/=”
